

SENIORS

JUNIORS

SOPHOMORES

FRESHMEN

JUNIORS

Developing character and individual personalities . . . working on plans for the prom . . . preparing for college boards . . . starting serious thought for the future . . . building a firm reputation for the Class of 1966.

Junior Class Officers

President, Bill Young; Vice President, John Peterman; Treasurer, Brenda Carswell; Secretary, Cynthia Cumming.

Juniors in Typing II

SOPHOMORES

Finishing their second lap . . .
moving upward . . . ordering class rings . . . towering over the Frosh . . . thinking about the future.

OFFICERS: Secretary, Janice Petrou; Vice President, Anna May LaRochelle; President, Robert Peterman; Treasurer, Teddi Small.

Sophomores in gym

Sophomores in Biology

FRESHMEN

Learning all the rules and regulations . . . waiting 'till next year to go to professional assemblies . . . looking up to the mighty Seniors . . . getting acquainted with the detention hall . . . starting to think on their own.

OFFICERS: Secretary, Robin Chenervert; President, John Demopoulos; Vice President, Eric Jorde; Treasurer, Norma Malefant.

Frosh in English

