FOREWORD

The 1965 PROFILE staff extends an invitation to each member of the faculty and administration, each Senior and underclassman to find within this book one picture, one word which you can look back on with pride or nostalgia. If this is possible, the yearbook staff will feel our time was put to good use. For within the 1965 PROFILE is the sincere effort exerted by the staff to present a book meaningful now and in the future.

"Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace"
Romans 14:19

Dedication:

The class of 1965 dedicates this PROFILE to "peace through understanding". Understanding is the key to attaining the world peace and unity for which we strive. Hoping to free the oppressed, assist the poor, and lift the weak, we dedicate our PROFILE as well as our lives.

"Oh! When shall all men's good
Be each man's rule, and universal peace.
Lie like a shaft of light across the land,
And like a land of beams athwart the sea,
Thro' all the circles of the golden year?"

-- The Golden Year

Alfred Lord Tennyson
